

60-SECONDS WITH:

EMMA TAYLOR, ASSOCIATE, COLLAS CRILL

Q What is your key area of practice?

A Commercial Dispute Resolution focused on Contentious Trusts in Guernsey and the BVI.

Q What are you most going to focus on in the next 12 months?

A My main focus is going to be trying to pass the Guernsey Bar Exams to qualify as a Guernsey Advocate, but I also have a number of big deadlines coming up over the next 12 months which will no doubt keep me busy when I am not studying!

Q What do you see as the biggest upcoming challenge you face as a practitioner?

A Trying to juggle studying with work is going to be my personal biggest challenge. I'm fortunate that Collas Crill have been really supportive with studying while working.

Q Why did you choose to attend TL4 x ConTrA's Private Client Summer School and what did you achieve from attending?

A To have an opportunity to network in a more informal and friendly way.

I've definitely picked up some networking skills which I hope will keep me in good stead for the future.

Q How did it feel to be back at a physical event?

A Great! My last in-person event was the ConTrA seminar in March 2020 and so it was nice to kick-off the first in-person event with ConTrA.

Q What was your key takeaway from any one of the sessions at Private Client Summer School over the 2 days?

A Not from one session – but I enjoyed seeing the different presentational styles people took. There were lots of different formats, which I hope will be of assistance for any future presentations that I need to give.

Q What would you say to people thinking of attending one of our summer schools in the future?

A I would say try and attend if you can. It's a great way to meet other lawyers of a similar level and the social events are pretty fun too!

Q What does the perfect weekend look like?

A Nothing beats a sunny day in Guernsey with a walk to Fermain Beach for a glass of wine with lunch and a swim if you are feeling brave!

Q What is the one thing you could not live without?

A Food. Stating the obvious, but I am a massive foodie and I am really enjoying the ability to travel to the UK again to try new restaurants.

Q Who would you most like to invite to a dinner party?

A Yotam Ottolenghi – in the hope that he may also cook too!
