

60-SECONDS WITH:

TAMSIN WOOLDRIDGE, SOLICITOR, SHAKESPEARE MARTINEAU

Q What is your key area of practice?

A Contentious trusts & probate

Q What are you most going to focus on in the next 12 months?

A Networking

Q What do you see as the biggest upcoming challenge you face as a practitioner?

A Increased reliance on technology and the potential hurdles if that technology fails

Q Why did you choose to attend TL4 x ConTrA's Private Client Summer School and what did you achieve from attending?

A I chose to attend as I thought the agenda looked interesting and I wished to develop my knowledge of both the contentious/non-contentious side of private client. I felt that the School provided me with a nice mix of refreshing my knowledge whilst teaching me new things that I have not had exposure to previously.

Q How did it feel to be back at a physical event?

A Enjoyable to be back out socialising and meeting new people

Q What was your key takeaway from any one of the sessions at Private Client Summer School over the 2 days?

A Never be afraid to ask questions – whatever level of your career you are at.

Q What would you say to people thinking of attending one of our summer schools in the future?

A A great opportunity to expand your network, improve your current knowledge and learn new things too

Q What does the perfect weekend look like?

A A mixture of seeing friends, exercising and relaxing at the Spa.

Q What is the one thing you could not live without?

A My kitten – Taylor Squish

Q Who would you most like to invite to a dinner party?

A Mo Farah

L